Relationships can be helpful and supportive, but the demands of school can sometimes strain them. The Texas A&M Veteran Resource and Support Center recognizes this and is working to develop a program to help.

If you are a Texas A&M student veteran, reservist, or active duty member who is married or in a committed relationship, please participate in taking the following survey to provide us with information on how to make this program as effective and applicable as possible:

https://qtrial2014.az1.qualtrics.com/SE/?SID=SV_a2YYTMtqElm2l0N

Contact the Veteran Resource & Support Center for more information (979) 845-3161 or aggievets@tamu.edu